2022 AUTUMN ART TALKS via Zoom

Postcard Art

Anon – to be revealed

'Art on a Postcard' is the name of a well-established postcard exhibition and sale in aid of charity, one of many that are run throughout the year up and down the country. Nearly all of these are 'secret' shows; the artists' works are exhibited anonymously and names only revealed after purchase. Many artists make postcard art, and so-called 'mail-art' in general, the origins of which go back at least until the end of WWII. The talk will consider this sub-genre of art practice looking at the work of a wide variety of art and artists.

Other talks in the series:

20th October Edgar Degas 24th November James Abbott McNeil Whistler

£5 per person per talk
